Wolf Messing came to India after a long gap of many years. He went to Kamalapuram and enquired about Sathya.

He was told that the Man of miracles was going to come any time. Messing too sat amongst the men and waited.

The young Lad in orange robe made an elegant appearance, blessing one and all. Messing thought to himself -

Thereafter, he met the principal of Brindavan college, Narendra, who was seated with his father and father-in-law at that time. Messing told him-

Swami is verily God Himself. He is not manifesting Himself in His true form. If you can visualise the aura around Him, you will know His true nature immediately. How lucky you are.

The next day, Wolf Messing got the opportunity to meet the divine Boy.

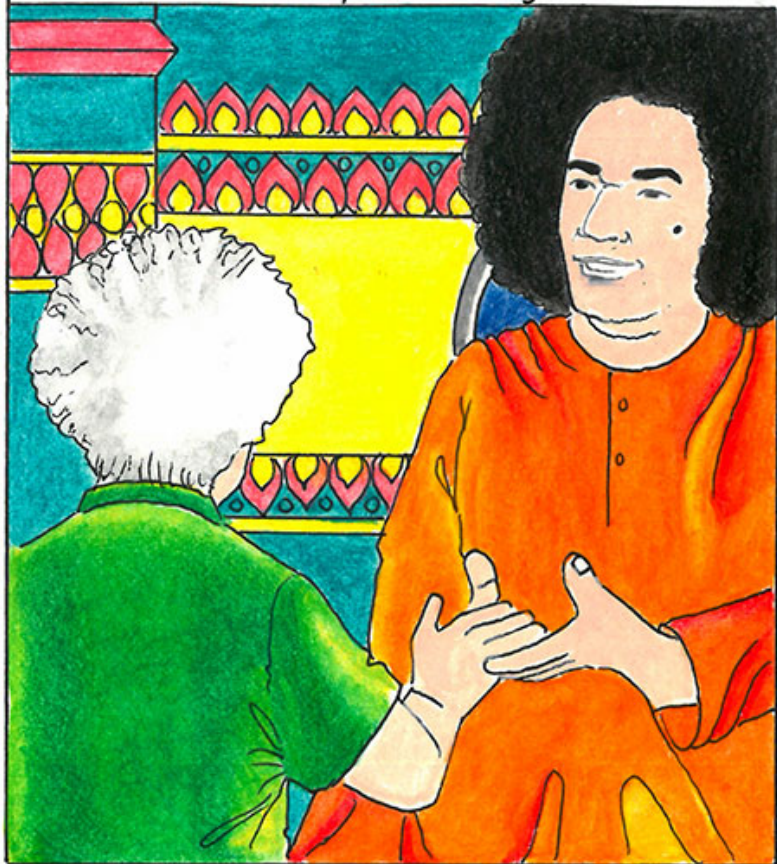

His eyes gazed at the divine beauty and shed tears of joy. He said to Swami-

My Dear, You are my everything.
I'm your instrument.
You are my everything.

Swami said that He explained what all had to be explained to Messing and told him that God had incarnated in human form and appeared as an ordinary human being.

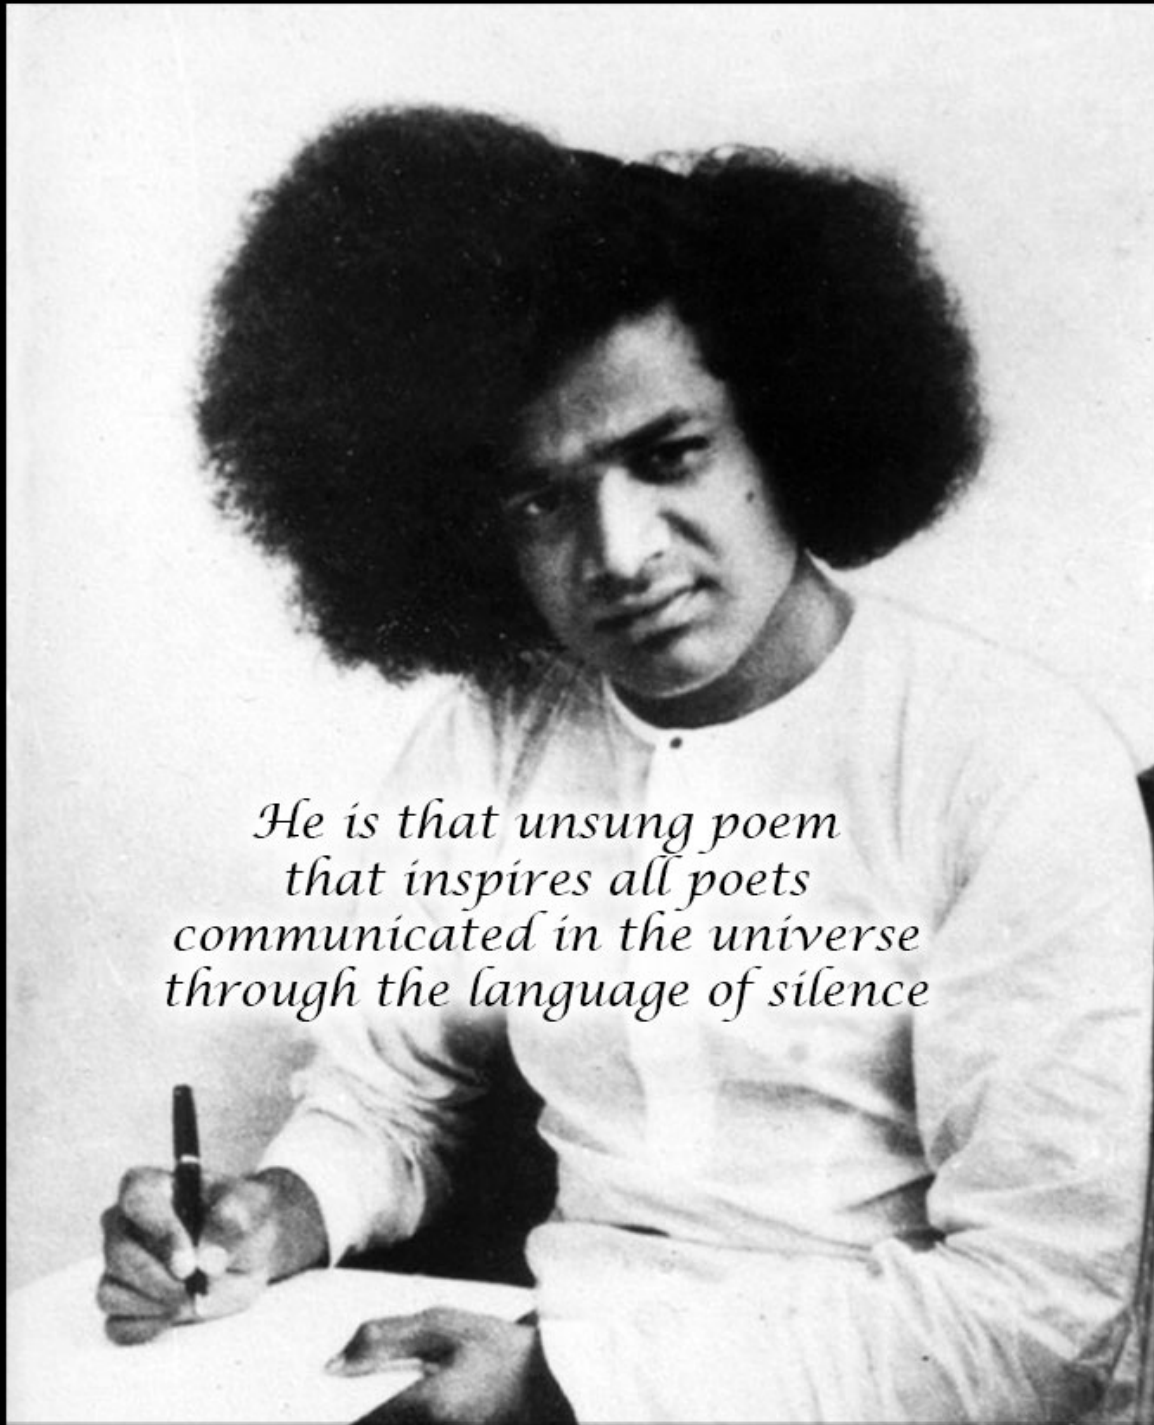

He took Swami's darshan and disappeared. How did he do that? Swami says that was a great miracle; all people can't witness nor understand even if He explains the phenomenon.

After some years a strange event occurred. Narendra was in the office with Swami discussing an issue. All of a sudden Wolf Messing appeared in the room.

...and this is how Messing's strange story came to a strange end...

He is that unsung poem that inspires all poets communicated in the universe through the language of silence

In the next chapter (21 February 2015) we will see how Swami became popular among people for His poetry writing skills, which he used to bring transformation in the society.
